Consumer Notes:

A packed January, too (in case December is just a dim memory)! Granted, much of it is the transformation of the marketplace from VHS to DVD, but there are significant things other than that as well. Most of it is the arrival of more TV animation (ie: animation that's on US television), and that's no problem as it accounts for serious volume these days (that is, if Flint: The Time Detective is any indicator!). Don't miss that Reboot volume, either!

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

The third Evangelion DVD is going to be flying off the shelves! I'd also like to take a minute here and say that in all likelihood this is the last recommendation I'll make: I'm handing this monthly update to someone else (who will be equally capable) to devote more time to our anime production. Take care... but you've probably heard enough of me after more than 5 years anyway!
